My dear Sir:-

As you, no doubt, remember this Society, some months ago, with your kind permission, obtained an insignia of the Imperial Order of the Yellow Rose for its collection of American Insignia.

I have just received a letter from Mr. J. Sanford Saltus, one of the Vice-Presidents of The British Numismatic Society of London, asking me if I could obtain another specimen of this insignia, which he desires to present to The British Numismatic Society. If you can give me permission to obtain the insignia for this purpose, I would be exceedingly obliged.

Very truly yours,

Director.

My dear Sir:-

Your kind letter of October 6th has just been received, and I am exceedingly obliged to you for the permission to obtain the insignia of the Imperial Order of the Yellow Rose for the British Numismatic Society. I am writing today to The Bailey, Banks & Biddle Company regarding it.

Regarding the insignia of the National Genealogical Society, which you so kindly mentioned, I would say that the particular collection of American insignia, which we are trying to increase at the present time, consists of the insignia of military or hereditary Societies. Of course, we are glad to have the badges of organizations of a different kind, but we are not at the present time purchasing them. If the membership in the National Genealogical Society is open to anyone, whom the Society should care to admit, its insignia would hardly come within the scope of this Collection. If, however, eligibility to membership depends on hereditary requirements, that would, no doubt, alter the case. I would, at any event, be exceedingly obliged for such information as you would care to give me regarding the Society.

Thanking you again for your kindness, and hoping sometime to have the pleasure of showing you our collection, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Director.
